Directions (81-87): Read the passage given below and answer the questions that follow:

The government is set to introduce amendments to the Companies Act in the winter session of Parliament to raise the bar on corporate governance, especially in hiring for board positions and handling resignations of auditors and top executives, said a person familiar with the development. The ministry of corporate affairs concluded a month-long public consultation on the matter and is now working on the proposed amendments and a draft bill. The key proposals seek to ensure that independent directors are truly independent, and companies are more open about instances of statutory auditors making adverse remarks or qualifications on the financial statements or even quitting their audit assignment. The proposals also seek to protect the independence of the statutory auditors (A)_____, including mandatory joint audits for certain types of companies.

The ministry has received feedback from experts and professionals on these recommendations made by the Company Law Committee that gave its report last month to finance and corporate affairs minister Nirmala Sitharaman.

"Some of the suggestions received during the public consultation are extensive. Given that the monsoon session is a short one and several sections in the Companies Act need amendment, the earliest opportunity to amend the law to raise the bar on corporate governance is the winter session," the person said on the condition of anonymity. The ministry is working on two other bills to amend the Competition Act and the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code (IBC), which are likely to be tabled in the coming monsoon session of Parliament.

The idea of the proposed changes to the Companies Act is to strengthen the gatekeepers of good governance—independent directors and auditors—infuse more transparency into company affairs and allow companies to issue fractional shares and discounted shares as part of efforts to improve ease of doing business. allow a company in distress to convert debt to equity (A)/retail investors access high-value shares, while discounted shares will (B)/prohibited under the Companies Act, will help (C)/ the issue of fractional shares, a practice currently (D). Some of the past failures in the corporate sector, especially involving large non-banking financial companies which faced at severing financial stresses, have prompted the government to contemplate some of these changes.

"India has over a million active companies, including a large number of listed companies. One or two of them failing once in a while, which can be due to many reasons, should not lead to a trust deficit in the audit profession," said Ved Jain, former president of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI). The average expenditure of companies A and C = $(28800 + 25600) / 2 = 54400 / 2 = \text{Rs.} 27200$

Expenditure of company E = 32000

Required difference = $32000 - 27200 = \text{Rs.} 4800$

9) Answer: A

The total income of company D = $28800 + 25600 = \text{Rs.} 54400$

The total profit of company D = $54000 - 40000 = \text{Rs.} 14400$

Required percentage = $14400 / 40000 \times 100 = 36\%$

10) Answer: B

The total income of companies C and E = $33600 \times 2 = \text{Rs.} 67200$

The total profit of companies C and E = $67200 - 25600 - 32000 = \text{Rs.} 9600$

11) Answer: A

The total expenditure of company F = $33600 \times 5 / 7 = \text{Rs.} 24000$

The total profit of company F = $32000 \times 3 / 8 = \text{Rs.} 12000$

Required percentage = $12000 / 24000 \times 100 = 50\%$

12) Answer: D

$$x \times (1 + R/100)^2 - x = x \times 44/100$$

$$(1 + R/100)^2 - 1 = 44/100$$

$$(1 + R/100)^2 = 1.44$$

$$1 + R/100 = 1.2$$

$$100 + R = 120$$

$$R = 120 - 100 = 20$$

13) Answer: A

$$(18000 \times 6 + 15000 \times 6) / (x \times 12) = (7800 - 4500) / 4500$$

$$132x = 2970000$$

$$x = 22500$$

14) Answer: C

$$\text{Milk in 27 liters} = 27 \times 7/12 = 15.75 \text{ liters}$$

$$\text{Water in 27 liters} = 27 \times 5/12 = 11.25 \text{ liters}$$

$$(7x - 15.75) / (5x - 11.25 + 27) = 7/9$$

$$63x - 141.75 = 35x + 110.25$$

$$x = 9$$

$$\text{Initial quantity of milk} = 7 \times 9 = 63 \text{ liters}$$

15) Answer: D

$$\text{Side of the Square} = a$$

$$\text{Length of the rectangle} = a$$

$$a^2 - 24 \times a = 256$$

$$a^2 - 32a + 8a - 256 = 0$$

$$a = 32$$

$$\begin{aligned} \text{Perimeter of the rectangle} &= 2 \times (24 + 32) \\ &= 112 \text{ cm} \end{aligned}$$

16) Answer: C

$$(4x + 5)/(x + 5) = 3/1$$

$$3x + 15 = 4x + 5$$

$$x = 10$$

$$\text{Present age of father} = 4 * 10 = 40 \text{ years}$$

$$\text{Present age of son} = 10 \text{ years}$$

$$40 + a = 250/100 * (10 + a)$$

$$80 + 2a = 50 + 5a$$

$$a = 10$$

After 10 years, the father's age is 250% of son's age at that time

81. Answer: A

As given in the first paragraph of the passage, "the government is set to introduce amendments in the Companies Act in the winter session of Parliament to raise the bar of corporate governance, especially in hiring for board positions and handling resignations of auditors and top executives, said a person familiar with the development". This paragraph talks about amendments in the law, which is similar to option (a), in order to improve the companies Act.

The rest of the options are irrelevant as per the passage.

82. Answer: B

As we can observe from the first paragraph of the passage, "The government is set to introduce amendments to the Companies Act in the winter session of Parliament to raise the bar on corporate governance, especially in hiring for board positions and handling resignations of auditors and top executives, said a person familiar with the development. The ministry of corporate affairs concluded a month-long public consultation on the matter and is now working on the proposed amendments and a draft bill" we can infer that Government seeks changes in the Companies Act in order to raise the bar. All the recommendations were for this purpose only.

83. Answer: B

The correct sentence should be:

Some of the past failures in the corporate sector, especially involving large non-banking financial companies that faced severe financial stress, have prompted the government to contemplate some of these changes.

IBPS RRB Clerk Mains 2021 Memory Based Paper

84. Answer: D

As given in the third paragraph of the given passage "The idea of the proposed changes in the Companies Act is to strengthen the gatekeepers of good governance—independent directors and auditors—infuse more transparency into the company affairs and allow the companies to issue fractional shares and discounted shares as part of efforts to improve ease of doing business". Thus, we can infer that option (d) will be correct.

85. Answer: A

On referring to the first paragraph of the passage "The ministry of corporate affairs concluded a month-long public consultation on the matter and is now working on the proposed amendments and a draft bill." Thus option (a) will be correct answer.

86. Answer: C

The word 'conglomerates' means a corporation formed by the combination of several smaller corporations. Thus, option (c) provides the correct meaning.

87. Answer: B

The correct sentence should be:

The issue of fractional shares, a practice currently prohibited under the Companies Act, will help retail investors access high-value shares, while discounted shares will allow a company in distress to convert debt into equity.

88. Answer: C

The sentence says that the Petroleum Minister in the Lok Sabha said that consequences or after-effects of the Russia-Ukraine war caused a 5% rise in price of petrol in India whereas in some countries it has risen by 50%. So the apt word is "aftermath".

Implication- the action or state of being involved in something.

Impetus- the force or energy with which a body moves.

Instigation- the action or process of instigating an action or event.

Hence option C is the correct answer.

89. Answer: B

The sentence says that the forthcoming census will be digital for the first time with an option of self mentioning a number one by one. So the most suitable word for the blank is "enumeration". ENUMERATION is the act or process of making or stating a list of things one after another.

Remuneration- money paid for work or a service.

Rejuvenation- the action or process of giving new energy or vigour to something.

Hence option B is the correct answer.

90. Answer: A

Directions (93-97):

The correct arrangement is EACBFD. Statement E can be used as a starter because it is more general and sets the tone for the rest of the passage. Sentence A suggests a plan to generalize the benefits which continues the starter because it is followed by state government's responsibility to provide the benefits mentioned in sentence E. So EA becomes a pair, followed by sentence C in which additional features are mentioned by introducing the word 'also' which talks about all workers now being eligible to minimum wage is mentioned but the contradiction for Nirmala's statement in C is mentioned in B in which there is no information about the number of gig workers currently employed in India, so CB becomes a pair followed by F in which government's plan to create an online platform is mentioned, followed by the concluding statement D in which the pronoun 'this' indicates the portal mentioned in the previous sentence F, so FD becomes a pair, and hence becomes a perfect conclusion and a solution for gig workers' issue by providing the online portal.

96. Answer: C

sentence F

97. Answer: D

sentence D

98. Answer: B

We use the first phrase 'in order to' to express the purpose of something. The two statements given above aren't contextually connected in this way. So, this connector wouldn't provide any meaning to the sentence and hence can be dropped.

The two connectors 'As' and 'For which' are used to refer to the reason for performing a certain action. We can use these both while connecting the sentences as the sentence intends to convey that because Europe pays such a hefty amount daily it doesn't consider stopping the gas line from Russia. The sentences that can thus be formed are:

→ As Europe pays $400 million daily, there is no mention of the EU considering stopping gas flows from Russia

→ There is no mention of the EU considering stopping gas flows from Russia for which Europe pays $400 million daily.

99. Answer: B

'Yet' if used with the present perfect means 'at any time up to now'. We use it to emphasise that we expect something to happen soon.

'However' most often modifies a group of words to show a contrast with something that had been said before. It can also be used to mean 'in whatever manner'.

When we use 'Because', we are focusing on the reason

The sentences given express a contrast as to even after being discussed at length, the solutions are simply jargons (means good in theory and not in practice). So, after joining the sentences using (ii), it will look like;

Our dependency on foreign capital flows and USD borrowings has been discussed to death, however, solutions such as diversifying our tea exports, growing the rubber sector and encouraging entrepreneurs, simply campaign jargon. These are not substantive ideas.

Thus, the best answer would be option (B).

100. Answer: E

We use the phrase 'as we put it' to refer to the role or purpose of a person or thing. Nothing like this is being done in the sentences.

We use 'though' often to introduce a fact which we regard as less important than the fact in the main clause.

'While' is used to talk about two longer events or activities happening at the same time.

Out of all the given connectors, only this fits the context of the sentence as food price rise along with lack of market discipline is being discussed (two things happening at the same time).

The sentence after being joined would look like:

While on the one side prices of day-to-day essentials such as vegetable oil and food items are shooting up, we also witness on the other side an utter lack of market discipline and total failure in monitoring, resulting in further price hikes.

Therefore, the best answer is option (E).

101. Answer: A
